Open Call for Participants
People-to-People Event

“Going Beyond Pride and Pain?”
3rd annual regional “History that Connects the Balkans” Summer School
18-23 July 2017
Albania

TACSO People2People is supporting the organization by EUROCLIO, in partnership with Anne Frank House and Center for Democracy and Reconciliation in South East Europe, of “Going Beyond Pride and Pain?”, the 3rd annual regional “History that Connects the Balkans” Summer School on 18-23 July 2017 in Albania.

This event aims to facilitate transnational transfer of knowledge and experience, to stimulate innovative teaching practices in the region, build capacity of educators and their associations for the teach and learning of responsible history that goes beyond the traditional focus of “pride and pain”.

During the summer school, participants will look back at decades of work and develop strategic planning for a history education for sustainable peace and inclusive societies. The event seeks to empower participants to set up activities and contribute to follow-up events, spin-off projects and online community building.

Through this open call, TACSO P2P will support the participation of 3 CSOs from each of the Western Balkan countries and Turkey (IPA Region).

Background information on TACSO P2P

The general objectives of the TACSO project are to strengthen the overall capacities and accountability of Civil Society Organisations (CSOs) within the Instrument for Pre-Accession Assistance (IPA) beneficiaries and to guarantee the quality of services of CSOs and a sustainable role of the CSOs in the democratic process.

The main purposes of the project are to:

- Increase and improve the capacity and actions of CSOs and to
- Improve the democratic role of CSOs.

The P2P Component of TACSO supports visits to EU institutions and bodies to exchange experiences, know-how and good practices between beneficiaries, EU Member States' civil society organisations (CSOs) with the aims to:

- Help the beneficiary CSOs to familiarise themselves with the EU institutions and the decision-making process, as well as with EU policies, legislation and programmes;
- Offer CSOs the opportunity to interact and network with their national, regional and European-level counterparts and to create new partnerships; and
- Stimulate civic participation in the beneficiary countries and the region.
